Rooted in Sisterhood: Navigating the Journey Through Resilience, Reclamation, and Restoration

The Association of Black Women in Higher Education, Inc. (ABWHE) is a premier collective of scholars and advocates dedicated to the prosperity of Black women for over three decades.

Who We Are

We are a powerhouse network committed to the intellectual growth of sister scholars and the development of Black youth. By dismantling social barriers like racism and sexism, we empower Black women, your and our greater community to reach its full potential.

Through intentional mentoring and a commitment to social justice, we preserve our history in academia while securing a resilient future for the next generation.

Partnering with us means investing in a legacy of excellence and institutional equity.

Support Sisterhood, Scholarship, and Service

Mark your calendars for a transformative experience. From October 14–16, 2026, the ABWHE National Conference arrives in Baltimore, Maryland, themed: "Rooted in Sisterhood: Navigating the Journey Through Resilience, Reclamation, and Restoration."

Whether you are a mentor, scholar, or student, your voice is vital. To fuel this mission, we invite your organization to join us as a conference sponsor. By investing in a sponsorship tier, you directly empower our sister scholars and Black youth, securing a legacy of equity and leadership for generations to come.

Sponsor the National Conference A donation of $45,000 will cover all conference costs. A donation of $5,000 will cover one of the keynote meal functions during the national conference. A donation of $500 will enable a K-12, college/university student to attend the conference for free!

Sponsor an ABWHE Scholarship ABWHE's motto is "Lift as We Climb," and you can help us do just that by supporting our scholarship efforts. A gift of $50, $500, $5000 or more will help the students we serve realize their academic goals.
